

Iron Bridge named finalist at prestigious property management awards

by Pam Marshall

We are thrilled to share that Iron Bridge Property Management has been announced as a finalist at the 2017 LPMNZ Awards for Excellence. Not only that, our company is a finalist in a whopping four of the seven categories!

The prestigious LPMNZ Awards recognise team and individual excellence, innovation and best practice in the New Zealand property management industry.

The categories Iron Bridge is a finalist in are:

- Property Management Company of the Year
- Excellence in Business Development – Monique Inglis
- Excellence in Corporate Support – Alynda Dow
- Rising Star – Katy Moore

Pam Marshall, General Manager Property Management, says, “This result acknowledges the calibre of our people, and the effort we devote to delivering total piece-of-mind property management for our clients. Congratulations to the team – especially Monique, Alynda and Katy – on this incredible result.”

The announcement adds to the long list of awards which Iron Bridge has received. It illustrates why our clients put their trust in us to manage more than $700 million worth of rental property around New Zealand.
